

Where To Stand To Serve The Volleyball

aka The Serving Position

Serve from the back right corner (facing the net)

You should be within or less than an arm's length from the side line and within or less than an arm's length from the back line

This is referenced in the club Rules and Best Practices document:

Serving position – The server must stand in the rightmost rotational position, within 2 feet of the rightmost boundary and 2 feet from the back line.

EXCEPTION: during recreational play only, the server may move to the left and/or forward due to height or other physical issues.
